PROPOSALS.

I. Proposals for printing by Subscription, a Miscellaneous Work, intitled, Thesaurus Præstantissimus, to consist of three Books in one Volume in Quarto. Book I. To contain a Discovery of the evil Practices and many dangerous Frauds, in preparing and vending vile and adulterated Medicines in the Shops of many Chymists, Apothecaries, theories, and Druggists; by which it will appear that the Health and Constitutions of Numbers are ruined by them, and the Lives of many cut off by the same: A Search that has been carry'd on for the Space of four Years, by the Encouragement of several Persons of Worth; with plain and easy Methods laid down, whereby every private Person may examine such pernicious Things themselves, and thereby avoid the Danger. Likewise a Scrutiny in divers Shops, where Drinks, or Food, or Eatables are sold, in Reference to Health. This Work to contain proved and best Methods of Cure in divers Diseases, and adapted to the Use of private Persons and Families, &c. — Better Methods in the four desperate Distempers, the Gout, King's Evil, Stone and Cancers. — Two sure Methods to stop a Salivation from proceeding too far. — Curious Experiments done at Paris on the Precipitate per se, so much in Vogue here at London. — An Examination of a certain Guinea-Pill. — A new and accurate Examination of Medicinal Waters. — Thoughts on divers Eatables, and on most Liquors in Use among us here in reference to Health. Book II. Of Pseudography, or a Preservative against the evil Practice of altering Bills, Notes, or any Writings, by discharging all Sorts of Inks, or by erasing, &c. of utmost Service to Bankers, Writers in Law, and others, exhibiting many Subjects useful to the Publick. Book III. Contains many valuable Discoveries, viz. Divers fine Colours for Paintings, &c. done at Paris. — To hinder the Growth of Animals, such as young Dogs, &c. — A Cement for the Keels of Ships, to preserve them from the Worm in the Indies. — To hinder Charcoal from doing Hurt to them who use it; of Use to Ships at Sea and others. — Better Methods against Bugs than any yet laid down by others. — Most accurate Attempts, made at Paris to render Sea-Water drinkable in Ships; with Directions for better managing the Fresh-Water than hitherto practis'd. By Bernard Tourbournville, M. D. The Account of the Contents at large of this uncommon Undertaking is printed, and to be had Gratis at the Receivers of the Subscriptions, viz. the Rev. Mr. Giberne, over against the George in Wardour-street near Soho Square; and Mr. Astley, Bookseller, at the Rose in St. Paul's Church-yard. III. Proposals for printing by Subscription, a new Edition of some select Dialogues of Lucian. By N. Kent, Kent, Fellow of King's College in Cambridge, may be seen at Mr. Knapton's, Mr. Knaplock's, Mr. Innys's in St. Paul's Church-yard; Mr. Vanderhoeck's at Virgil's Head over against the New Church in the Strand; Mr. Pote's at Sir Isaac Newton's Head near Suffolk Street, Charing-cross; Mr. Benj. Motte's at the Middle Temple-Gate; Mr. Wilmot's and Mr. Wells's at Oxford; and Mr. Crownfield's and Mr. Thilbourn's in Cambridge.

IV. Proposals for printing by Subscription in one Volume in 8vo. S. S. Patrum Apostolicorum, Barnabae, Clementis, Hermæ, Ignatii, & Polycarpi vera opera, cum versionibus, & selectis Variorum notis: By Richard Russel, M. A. Subscriptions are taken in by J. Stagg in Westminster-Hall; L. Gilliver at Homer's Head in Fleet-street; W. Parker at the King's Head in St. Paul's Church-yard; and R. Willock at Sir Isaac Newton's Head near the Royal Exchange, London; by R. Clements at Oxford; and C. Crownfield at Cambridge.

Likewise now in the Press, and the greatest Part printed off, a beautiful and more correct Edition than any yet extant, of M. Hieronymi Vidæ Poemata, quæ extant omnia: ex recensione Richardi Russel, A. M. Printed in 12mo in an Elzivir Letter; for L. Gilliver at Homer's Head in Fleetstreet.

V. The Encouragers of printing the Book of the Genealogical and Chronological Tables of all Emperors, Kings, and Sovereign Princes, are hereby informed, that a third Part of it is printed, and the Sheets cast off may be seen at Mr. Anderson's, over against St. James's Church, Piccadilly, or at Mr. Bettenham's the Printer; in St. John's Lane, near Hicks's-hall; and the other Sheets shall be printed as soon as the uncommon Labour of the Work will allow. Mr. Anderson also acquaints all Persons descended from the Royal Families of England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, whether by legitimate or illegitimate Branches, that if they will send to him their Genealogy, with References to good Vouchers, and pay Postage or Portage, it shall be carefully inserted in the Britannic Tables, which are to be printed last, in order to give Time to those Descendants.

VI. Whereas Proposals for printing Mr. Ridgeley's Body of Divinity have been sometime published, and a considerable Number already subscribed for, the Proprietors design to put it to the Press by the 2d Day of June next; therefore those who are willing to subscribe are desired to send in their first Payment as soon as possible, the Undertakers being determined to print but a very small Number more than shall be subscribed for at the Time above-mentioned; by which means the Number remaining (if any) must be so very small, that they will be obliged considerably to advance the Price, being resolved to give the Encouragers of this Work no Reason of Complaint.

N. B. Subscriptions are taken in by John Clarke and Richard Hett at the Bible and Crown in the Poultry,

VII. Whereas Mr. Ab. de Moivre, Author of the Doctrine of Chances, has now in the Press a Book, intitled, Miscellanea Analytica de Seriebus infinitis & Quadraturis, quibus accessere variae Considerationes de Methodis Comparationum, Combinationum, & Differentiarum, Solutiones difficiliorum aliquot Problematum ad Sortem pertinentium, itemque Constructiones faciles Orbium Planetarum, una cum determinatione maximarum & minimarum Mutationum quae in Motibus Corporum caelestium occurrunt, &c. And whereas the Author some time ago, with a View of having the said Book printed by Subscription, did deliver printed Receipts, by him signed, to several Persons who were inclined to favour his Undertaking; this is to give Notice that he intends to print a few more Copies than will barely answer the Number of Subscriptions actually disposed of, and that those who are willing to subscribe before the 1st of June next, may send to Mr. Harding a Bookseller in St. Martin's-lane; where Receipts in full, signed by the Author, will be given upon the Payment of one Guinea.
